Good news

Crime

38-year-old Christopher Kenneth, formerly of Wagon Road, Greasbrough has been sentenced to 36 weeks imprisonment for burglary offences in the area.

The team has arrested a suspect for 12 offences of theft from motor vehicles, on the Wickets Estate in Swinton. Investigations are continuing.

On 28 January Police Community Support Officers (PCSO's) Claire, Des and Dave located a stolen car. The car was part of a burglary that happened 30 minutes prior.

Warrants

We carried out a warrant at an address in Swinton following some concerns around drug use. 10 cannabis plants were recovered and the occupant is currently under investigation.

Community

Officers held a community speed watch on Racecourse Road and Romwood Avenue in Swinton after residents raised concerns about speeding. 150 vehicles were monitored and 15 were travelling in excess of 35mph.
