Welcome to your Melton Mowbray police e-newsletter. Here you will find all of the latest news from a Melton Mowbray policing perspective and crime prevention advice to help keep yourself safe.

Stamp it out! Hate Crime

Earlier this month PCSO's Tracey Biggs and Maureen Queen were at Sainsbury's supporting a national campaign for hate crime called "Stamp-it-out". It is a community led partnership bringing together different groups across Leicestershire and Rutland.

We will always take your concerns seriously. If you have suffered or seen someone suffer from a hate crime incident please report it on 101 or online at <https://www.leics.police.uk> or you can report incidents anonymously at Hate Crime / Incident Reporting Form | Leicestershire Police \(leics.police.uk\)

Tracey and Maureen would like to thank you to everyone that stopped to talk to them and completed the hate crime survey and signed up to Neighbourhood Link.

Battle of Britain Memorial Service

Officers from Melton Mowbray were at the Melton Mowbray War Memorial Gardens to pay their respects to those who fought and lost their lives in the Battle of Britain.

PS Dave Gott (pictured here with the wreath), laid the wreath on behalf of Leicestershire Police.

Working with our partners

Recently our Melton Town North Beat Team officers PC Ryan Hill and PCSO Tracey Biggs completed a walk around the beat with a member of Melton Borough Council.

Partnership working is an important tool in tackling the issues that concern our residents the most.

2021 Leicestershire Live Heroes Awards

Winners of the ten Leicester Mercury Heroes Awards were announced at a glittering ceremony at King Power Stadium.

The awards celebrate inspirational members of our communities, offering them some well-deserved recognition. The awards were sponsored by the Leicestershire Police and Crime Commissioner.

PC's Anna Ingram (in the middle is our Uppingham DNO) and Ben Tranter (on the left is our Melton Rural South DNO) were nominated for an award. Some of you may also recognise PC Joe Lloyd (on the right) from Oakham as well.

Although they did not win the award they had ensured that the person who was in crisis didn't take his own life and safeguarded the public in what was a difficult and dangerous incident. We would like to congratulate them for their courageous act.

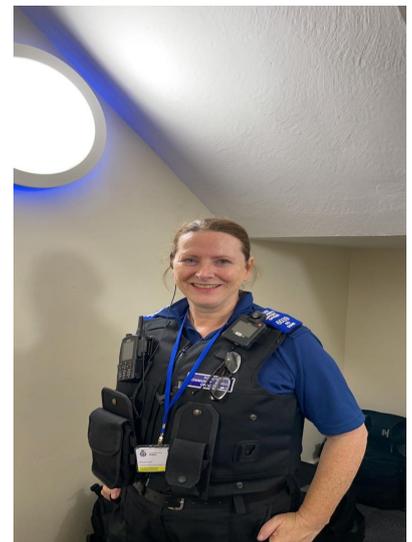

Say hello to...

PCSO Maureen Quinn our new Melton Town South PCSO who joins the team of PC Matt Houghton and PCSO Ciaron Fuller. Maureen is originally from Manchester.

Maureen tells us that: "I have previously worked for Nottinghamshire Police for over 22 years in various roles and hope my skills can be used within Leicestershire Police and helping the Melton community.

I have been covering the Fairmead Estate and surrounding area for my tutorship, which has been good experience in working with anti-social behaviour (ASB) and other local issues.

I decided to be a PCSO as I wanted to do something different and this was a good way to show that I can still learn new things and experiences."

The next edition will be out soon!
